

The Hotel Maryland

is equipped with all modern appointments, comfortable rooms, private baths, steam heat, telephone service, newspaper and book stand.

The location is the most elevated and accessible in the city, within three minutes walk of the Naval Academy.

The accommodations are in all respects first-class and up-to-date, and charges moderate.

Special rates to Naval Officers, their families, and the parents and relatives of midshipmen.

Electric cars from Washington and Baltimore pass the Hotel door connecting, with the Naval Academy main gate.

GEORGE T. MELVIN, Proprietor

- Lively, Harry T., Custom officer, res. 23 Wagner st.
 Lively, Phoebe, Miss, res. 11 Franklin st.
 Levy, Benj., general merchandise, 182 Lincoln place, res. same.
 *Levy, Henry, driver, res. 1st st.
 Levy, John J., clerk, res. 23 Madison st.
 Levy, M., boots and shoes, 69 West st., res. same.
 Lewis, Albert, green groceries, City Market, res. 126 Main st.
 Lewis, Archibald, stenographer, res. 80 Prince George st.
 Lewis, Harry E., oysterman, res. 281 Severn ave., Eastport.
 Lewis, J. R., Capt., sand and gravel, res. 104 Prince George st.
 *Lewis, John H., oysterman, res. 196 Chester ave., Eastport.
 Lewis, William, retired, res. 177 3rd st., Eastport.
 Lewis, William H., oysterman, res. 170 3rd st., Eastport.
 Lewis, William H. C., oysterman, res. 181 Severn ave., Eastport.
 Lighthiser, C. H., oyster packer, Johnson place (A. Dall, mgr.).
 Lindenborn, Charles, laundryman, res. 112 West st.
 Linthicum, Ernest, mail carrier, res. 138 Market st.
 Linthicum, George, Supt., res. 40 Franklin st.
 Linthicum, Joshua, fertilizer agent, res. 138 Market st.

The Advertiser-Republican