

of the Peace and was duly qualified to hear the within Commission before Samuel Adams
 The Deposition of Maj: Jurgensen Wheatly aged fifty One years or there about being sworn on the holy Evangelic of Almighty God Depoeth as followeth (to wit) that as near as this Depoent can remember the time about Eighteen or Nineteen years past Cap: David Wilfon and Cap: John Wilfon and himself were chosen Arbitrators to determine a certain Controversy between John Williams and Robert Boyer in Relation to the title of a tract of land called Glencoth then in Possession of John Williams and One Other had of Land called Merrice Hope then in Possession of the Cap: Robert Boyer and the Depoent saith that then and there upon the Cap: had of Land called Glencoth a certain James Otley was sworn to Relate what he knew of the bounds of the Cap: had of Land who upon Oath (before him and the Other Arbitrators) declared as follows (to wit) that he the said James Otley had lived on the South Side of ^{the Bay} ~~the River~~ for forty five years before that time and used frequently to go fishing to or near Spawick Point at the Mouth of ~~the River~~ ^{the Bay} and used to go ashore there on Spawick point often and this Depoent saith that James Otley declared that when he first knew Spawick Point there was a small Orchard of Land on the End of the said Point with sundry small trees growing thereon and one large White Oak with fifteen Notches on it and the Oak was the said but not that the Notches were the plain in the said trees and the Depoent saith that James Otley declared that he asked the Reason of these Notches being the aforementioned Orchard since Smith and sundry Others persons told him the said Otley that the afore mentioned Orchard was the Boundary of James Otley's Land that he lived on or had formerly lived on to which this Depoent does not remember and this Depoent saith that they had agreed to give an Award in Robert Boyer's favor but Samuel Wilfon and Boyer both died about that time and just as to the Matter and this Depoent saith further that Jurgensen Wheatly

Samuel Adams
 The Deposition of Benjamin Banton aged forty five years or there about being sworn on the holy Evangelic of Almighty God Depoeth as followeth (to wit) that since years past but how long this Depoent does not remember that he saw James Otley say that there stood a White Oak on the End of Spawick point marked with fifteen Notches and further this Depoent declared that he heard his first Wife say that when she was a Girl that she saw a stump with Notches on it standing down the shore or bay side from the End of the Point near the Mouth of a small Drain near to where there is now a small Slope pine which is a small distant Easly from the White fence which is partly made with Whole Cuts of Timber commonly called and known by the name of White Oak and this Depoent saith further that Benjamin Banton

The above is a true Deposition taken by me the undersigned J. Broughton J. Broughton
 Samuel Adams
 The Deposition of J. Ellis aged eighty years or there about being sworn on the holy Evangelic of Almighty God Depoeth as followeth to wit that Robert Boyer showed to him this Depoent a map which is down the shore or bay side from the End of Spawick Point near the Mouth of a small Drain near to where there is now a small Slope Pine which is a small distant Easly from the White fence which is partly made with Whole Cuts of Timber commonly called and known by the name of the White Oak and this Depoent declared that Robert Boyer told him that the aforementioned map had been a part of a tract of Land called Merrice Hope and this Depoent saith further that J. Ellis

Samuel Adams
 The Deposition of Cap: Henry Schultfield aged thirty three years or there about being sworn on the holy Evangelic of Almighty God Depoeth as followeth (to wit) that about Eighteen or Nineteen years past as this Depoent can remember the time that this Depoent happened to be present at a certain Commission had the Deposition of James Otley of what he knew in Relation to the Bound of the bounds of a tract of Land called Glencoth and this Depoent saith that the said James Otley declared before the said Commission that he the said James Otley and Simon Smith had agreed upon the said Land called Glencoth and the said James Otley declared he had seen under a marked White Oak near to where the Point of Marsh Marked from the high Ground by the side of ~~the River~~ ^{the Bay} about Eighteen or Nineteen years past by a marked Poplar tree marked with Twelve Notches by use the Commission and this Depoent saith that the James