Benson by of Exeter s^d Transposuer on the 14th s^d

And Whereupon the s^d Gale and Benson by by William Hayward their Attorney complain that Whereas the s^d Edward the Twelfth day of July in the year of our s^d One thousand seven hundred fifty and Nine of the County s^d was Judged unto the s^d Gale and Benson by in the sum of fifteen pounds Eleven Shillings and Sixpence for the County s^d Money of Maryland for the sundry Articles and things in the Account hereto Annexed mentioned So thereof Indebted being the s^d Edward in Consideration thereof afterwards to wit the same day and year s^d the County s^d upon himself assumed and to the s^d Gale and Benson by then and there faithfully promised that he the s^d Edward the sum of Money s^d when he should be thereto afterwards Required to the s^d Gale and Benson by well & faithfully would pay and Content Never the less the s^d Edward his Promise and Assumption s^d in form s^d made Little Paying but winding and fraudulently intending the s^d Gale and Benson by in that part Craftily and s^d to to deceive and defraud the sum of Money s^d unto the s^d Gale and Benson by hath not paid - them for the same in any sort Contented for the same he the s^d Edward afterwards to wit the same day and year s^d and after since at the County s^d by the s^d Gale and Benson by was Required but the same to them to pay he the s^d altogether both Refused and still doth Refuse and unjustly deny Whereupon the s^d Gale and Benson by by they are worse and have Damages to the Value of fifty Pounds s^d Money of Maryland and thereof they have s^d
