RATES OF POSTAGE.—Letters composed of one or more pieces of paper, but not exceeding half an ounce in weight, sent any distance not exceeding 3,000 miles 3 cents; over 3,000 miles 10 cents. Double rate if exceeding half an ounce, treble if exceeding an ounce, and so on, charging an additional rate for every additional half ounce or fraction of an half ounce.

Letters dropped in the post office, for delivery in the same place, 1 cent each.

Letters advertised are charged 1 cent each besides regular postage. Drop letters are not advertised.

Circulars, 1 cent for 3 oz. or less to any part of the United States.

Daily newspapers weighing three ounces or less, 4½ cents per quarter, when sent from the office of publication to actual and bona fide subscribers any where in the United States. Transient newspapers sent any where within the United States, 1 cent for 3 ounces or less.

For postage on other printed matter, see table of rates.

When the article to be mailed is a circular, pamphlet, or newspaper, it should be so enveloped as to be opened at one end—otherwise it will be charged as a letter.
