

CHAPTER 123.

An act to alter and change a part of the Divisional Line between Dorchester and Caroline Counties. Passed Mar. 3, 1833

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of sundry citizens of Dorchester and Caroline counties, that the public convenience will be promoted, and individual interest subserved, by the alteration of a part of the Divisional Line between said counties, as set forth in said petitions—Therefore,

Preamble,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jacob Charles, Francis P. Phelps and Nathan Corkran, be, and they are hereby appointed Commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to change and alter so much of the public Road which now divides the Counties of Dorchester and Caroline, as is necessary to accomplish the wishes and intentions of the parties interested, as set forth and described in two plats and certificates, by Nathan Corkran, surveyor, one dated January the twelfth, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and the other dated January the twenty-fourth day, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three; or in such other convenient manner as shall best suit the public convenience, and subserve the interests of the individuals concerned; and it shall be the duty of the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, to cause so much of the old Road and Divisional Line aforesaid, as may be necessary, to be laid down by the surveyor of one of the counties aforesaid, or such other person as they, or a majority of them, may believe competent to do so, or the said Commissioners may adopt the survey, plats and certificates before mentioned, if they, or a majority of them, may see proper so to do, shewing in what manner the alteration is made, and to return a plat thereof, with the surveyor's certificate thereon, to the Levy Courts of Dorchester and Caroline counties; and if the Levy Courts aforesaid, shall approve of the alterations made and certified as aforesaid, the same shall be recorded by the clerks of the respective county courts of Dorchester and Caroline, and thence forward, the said new Road and Divisional Line shall be held and considered as a part of the public Road and Divisional Line between the said counties of Dorchester and Caroline, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner as the public Road and Divisional Line has been, and now is kept in repair.

Commissioners to lay out.

Directors.

Plat.

If approved, to be recorded.