

CHAP. 135. give them;—Therefore, to remedy the evils above complained of,

Shooting restricted.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That no person shall hereafter, in any of the waters of the Potomac River, or any of its tributary streams, shoot at wild fowl during the night time, with a gun of any description, unless it be from the land, or a blind fixed on some bar in said waters; nor shall any person, at any time, either in the day, or in the night, shoot any description of gun from skiffs, or other boats, which may not be conveniently discharged from the shoulder at arm's length without a rest; and any person convicted of a violation of this act, before any magistrate of any county adjoining the waters or water courses in which the offence may be committed, shall forthwith surrender his gun to the magistrate, who shall cause the same to be sold, and the proceeds to be paid, one half to the levy court of the county aforesaid, and the other half to the informer, and in case of refusal by the offender to surrender his gun as required, it shall be the duty of the magistrate to commit said offender to the public jail of the county, there to remain thirty days, if the surrender is not sooner made.

Penalty for violating the restriction

CHAPTER 135.

Passed Mar. 4, 1833

An act authorising the Commissioners of Harford County to levy a sum of money for purposes therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by petition of the trustees of the poor for Harford county, that the said county stands indebted to Otho Scott, Esq. for a balance due him for the poor house property, and states that it will be necessary that a levy of one thousand dollars shall be made on the county this present year, and one thousand dollars more the next year, to meet the payments that will become due, and have prayed that a law may pass, authorising the County Commissioners to levy the same:—Therefore,

Levy $1000.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That the Commissioners for Harford County be, and they are hereby authorised and required to levy upon the assessable property of their county the sum of one thousand dollars in this present year, and one thousand dollars more in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and have the