

and twelve, entitled, "An act for the valuation of real and personal property in the several Counties of this State, to re-value and re-assess the real and personal property in said County."

CHAP. 139.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners be, and they are hereby required to complete the said assessment, and make return thereof agreeably to the provisions of the before mentioned act, on or before the first of September next, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all county levies shall thereafter be made from said assessment; Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted, That all real and personal property, required to be assessed by this act, shall be valued and assessed at the full value thereof in ready money, any thing in any act, to the contrary hereof notwithstanding; and provided also, that every assessor shall before he enters upon the duties of his office, take the following oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, viz.—I, A. B., do swear or affirm, that I will well and truly execute the duty of an Assessor, and will faithfully, justly and impartially value all the real and personal property which I may be appointed to value, according to the best of my skill and knowledge.

To be completed by 1st September.

Levy thereon.

Proviso.

Property to be valued at full value.

Oath of assessors.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That instead of one Collector of the County Taxes as now appointed, the Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, shall hereafter appoint four Collectors, one of whom shall be the Collector of County taxes in the first and second election districts; and another shall be the Collector of County taxes in the third and fourth election districts; and another shall be the Collector of County taxes in the fifth and sixth election districts; and another shall be the Collector of County taxes in the seventh election district of said County; and the said Collectors shall give bond with security for the faithful discharge of their duties in the form now prescribed by law, and shall within their respective districts have all the powers which are now vested in the County Collector by law, and shall be subject to like liabilities; and the said Commissioners of the County, shall be, and they are hereby required to designate the manner in which the taxes to be collected by said Collectors respectively, shall be appropriated.

Four collectors hereafter to be appointed.

Districts assigned.

Powers and liabilities.

How their collections are to be appropriated.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That no person shall be eligible as a Collector, except a resident in the collection district, for which he shall be appointed.

Collector's residence.