

CHAP. 142. damages which may be sustained as well as the advantages by the owner or owners of said land, and make true inquisition and return of the amount of damages which may be sustained by the owner or owners of said land, under their hands and seals, to the justice who issued the warrant, and that the decision of the said jurors shall be final; Provided, that the said turnpike road shall not pass through the house, yard, grist mill, or saw mill of any person.

On payment of damages construction authorized.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That upon the President and Directors paying to the owners of the land the sum so awarded by the jurors aforesaid, as the case may be, they shall have power to cut, dig and make the turnpike road aforesaid, through such land in the same manner as if the consent of the owner had been given thereto, and that the said President and Directors be empowered to erect and make bridges and viaducts over all such streams, or water courses as may be thought necessary for the benefit of said Turnpike Road, so as not to obstruct the free current of said streams or water courses.

Time limited for completing.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in full and perpetual force; Provided, that the work contemplated to be executed and made by the provisions of this bill, shall be commenced within three years from the passage of this act, otherwise all right intended to be given and secured by this act, shall be null and void.

Keeping road in order.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That if at any time the said road or any part thereof, shall, by omission or neglect of said company or their agents, not be kept in regular good order, then and in that case, upon application being made to a justice of the peace, in and for said county, he shall be authorized to issue his warrant, directed to any constable, sheriff, or deputy sheriff, requiring the gates on said road to be thrown open, free from the collection of toll, and so remain until the state and order of the road is reinstated to reasonable and original order.

CHAPTER 142.

Passed Feb. 27, 1833

An act to repeal an act, entitled, an act to abolish Imprisonment for Debt, on certain judgments rendered by Justices of the Peace. passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and fifty-five.

Act repealed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the act, enti-