

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the trustee or trustees shall give bond with such security or securities as the said Court shall approve for the faithful performance of his or their trust, and shall file an inventory or inventories in the Court of Chancery, of all property that shall come to his or their hands, and shall render an annual account of the manner in which he or they have managed the person and property of the said George M. Tyler, and shall be allowed by the said Court for his or their trouble such commission as is usual to allow guardians or trustees for the care of the persons and estates of their wards in this State.

CHAP. 148.
Trustee's Bond.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said County Court of Frederick county, sitting as a Court of Chancery, to order and direct the trustee or trustees to invest the estate of the said George M. Tyler, in real property, or in any other manner as may be deemed most advisable.

Investment directed.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That all deeds, wills, or contracts of any kind or description, which the said George M. Tyler shall make during his incapacity, or while he is under the care and custody of the said Court as a Court of Chancery, shall be utterly void and of no effect.

Acts of G. M. T. void.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the receipt of the trustee or trustees, duly acknowledged before a magistrate, and recorded in the Orphans' Court of Frederick county, shall be a full and final discharge to the executors and trustees acting under the wills of the said William Murdock, Esqr., and the said Eleanor Murdock, of all and every interest, claim, or demand, which the said George M. Tyler can or may hereafter claim of them or either of them, under and by virtue of the said wills, and a certified copy of the said receipt, shall be received as good and conclusive evidence in any Court either of law or equity in this State.

Receipt of Trustees acknowledged.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the County Court of Frederick county sitting as a Court of Chancery, shall have full power and authority, upon petition in writing, and being satisfied by proof that the said George M. Tyler, has reformed his habits, and has become capable of conducting his own affairs with ordinary prudence, to restore to him his estate, in the condition in which it may be at that time, whether real or personal.

Authority to restore his estate.
