

of said county, in the same manner as county charges now are. CHAP. 174.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all fines, under the provisions of this act, shall be recovered in the name of the State of Maryland, as other small debts out of court are; and it shall be the duty of the officer collecting the same, to pay it over to the informer and collector as aforesaid, agreeably to the provisions of this act. How recoverable.

CHAPTER 173.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the revaluation of Real and Personal Property, in Anne Arundel county, passed at the present session of the General Assembly. Passed Mar. 13, 1833

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners of Anne Arundel county, instead of appointing one or more assessors for each election district, as is provided for in the act of November session, eighteen hundred and twelve, chapter one hundred and ninety-one, shall appoint three suitable and discreet men, whose duty it shall be to go together throughout the county, and value and assess all the real and personal property in said county, agreeably to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and the said commissioners shall also appoint one assessor for the city of Annapolis. Appoint three collectors.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall allow the said assessors such compensation for their services as they shall think just and reasonable, not exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars each. Compensation.

CHAPTER 174.

An act to alter and change the Location of a Public Road therein mentioned. Passed Mar. 13, 1833

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly by the petition of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, that the public convenience would be promoted by changing the location of a part of the public road, leading from the Westminster road, by Sykesville, through the farm of Joshua Young—Therefore, Preamble.