

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That occasional meetings of the said Company may be called by the managers for the time being, or by the survivors or survivor of them, if any of them be dead, at such times and places, as the said managers, or the survivors or survivor of them, may appoint, by giving ten days public notice thereof by advertisements put up in at least three of the most public places in the neighborhood of the said ditch or ditches in the state of Delaware, and in at least three of the most public places in the neighborhood of said ditch or ditches in this State.

CHAP. 180.

Occasional general meetings

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That if the managers, treasurer and secretary aforesaid, shall not all or any of them be chosen at any annual meeting, and if any manager, treasurer, or secretary, as aforesaid, shall die, resign, refuse to serve, or neglect to act, such vacancy may be filled at any adjourned or occasional meeting, in the same manner in which the officers of the said company are elected at the regular annual meetings thereof, and if any manager, treasurer, or secretary, as aforesaid, shall remove from the neighborhood of the said marshes and low grounds, the said company, at any adjourned or occasional meeting thereof, may declare the place of such manager, treasurer, or secretary, vacant, and elect another to supply his place; and further, the said company shall have power to do all such acts at any adjourned or occasional meeting, as may or might be done at an annual meeting; but no sum of money shall be ascertained or determined to be raised at any occasional meeting.

Case of failure to elect officers.

Case of vacancy.

Power of occasional meetings.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the treasurer, and every Treasurer, shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, give bond, with surety or sureties, to be approved by the managers at the time being, to, and in, the name of the said company, in the penalty of two thousand dollars, upon condition to be void if he shall pay all orders drawn upon him by the managers for the time being, or by one or more manager or managers in those cases in which one or more manager or managers is or are by this act authorized to draw orders upon the treasurer, as far as he, the said treasurer, shall have funds for that purpose, and shall well and truly account for all monies that may come to his hands, as such treasurer, at every annual meeting of the company or otherwise, as the company may direct, and shall pay any balance or sum which shall be due from him on such account to his successor in office, or otherwise, as the company may direct, and shall perform all the duties of his office with fidelity.

Treasurer to bond

His obligation.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer, and

His powers to collect, &c.