

bodies politic or corporate, capable to make the same, and such lands, tenements, rents, annuities, pensions, or other hereditaments, or any less estates, rights, or interests of or in the same, at their pleasure to grant, alien, sell, and transfer, in such manner and form as they shall think meet and convenient for the furtherance of said College, and also that they may take and receive any sum or sums of money, any and every kind, manner, or portion of goods and chattles, that may be sold or given to them by any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, capable to make a gift or sale thereof, and employ the same towards maintaining said College, in such manner as they shall judge most necessary and convenient for the instruction of students in medicine, and the sciences connected with it; Provided, that at no time shall the whole value of the estate and property of the said professors or their successors, real, personal, and mixed, exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars.

Limitation.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said professors and their successors, shall be able in law to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any court or courts, before any judge, judges, or justices, within this state and elsewhere, in all and all manner of suits and pleas of whatever kind, nature or form they be, and to do all and every other matter and thing hereby contemplated to be done, in as full and effectual a manner as any other person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, in like cases may or can do.

Legal capacity.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the said professors and their successors shall have full power and authority to have, make, and use one common and public seal, and likewise one privy seal, with such devices and inscriptions as they shall think proper, and to ascertain, fix and regulate the uses of both seals by their own laws, and the said seals, or either of them, to change, break, alter and renew at their pleasure.

Legal capacity.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the professors and their successors, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to elect a President and other necessary officers of the College, they shall have the sole power of choosing professors in the various branches of medicine, when vacancies shall occur in their own body, also to appoint a Professor of the Institutes of Medicine, lecturers upon the various branches of science, kindred to the science of medicine, as well as those which may be considered subservient thereto; Provided, that there shall always be in active existence the professorships provided for in the second

General power of professors.

Proviso.