

CHAP. 189. clause of this act; and said professors, from time to time constituted or existing, or a majority of them, shall be and are hereby declared to be competent to exercise all the powers and authorities hereby granted to this corporation.

Annual meeting of professors.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the said professors and their successors shall meet at least once a year in stated annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances they may direct, in order to examine into all matters touching the discipline of the institution, and the good and wholesome execution of their ordinances; and the said professors, when duly assembled, shall have full power and authority to make their own rules of proceeding, and to make fundamental ordinances for the government and discipline of the said College; in all which meetings a majority of the whole number of professors shall be a quorum, to do any business, except to vacate the seat of a professor or lecturer, for which purpose, the consent of five-sixths of the whole number of professors shall be necessary.

Quorum.

Power of removing professors, &c.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the said professors or five sixths of their whole number shall have power whenever in their judgment they may discover sufficient cause, to remove any President, Professor or Lecturer of the said college, and in cases of disability by casualty or superannuation of a Professor or Lecturer, a majority of the said Professors shall choose an adjunct professor, whose compensation shall in no case exceed one half of the proceeds of the professorship so affected; and in case of the death or removal of such disabled professor, the powers of the adjunct shall cease, and the professors in being or a majority of them shall proceed to fill the vacancy.

Adjunct.

Term for lectures.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said professors and their successors to hold one term in every year for the period of four months each session, for the purpose of delivering lectures and instructions on the various branches of medical science, attached to their several professorships, during which period also the various lecturers appointed for other branches of science, shall deliver their respective courses; provided however, that lectures on botany need not be delivered except during the seasons best calculated in the opinion of said professors, or of a majority of them, for affording a knowledge of that science.

Board of Visitors.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That there be appointed a board of visitors to consist of twenty four members, and
