

CHAP. 196. promissory notes, which shall be offered for discount in said bank, by any person or persons, although the same shall not on the face thereof, be made negotiable at the Commercial Bank of Millington, nor be made payable at the house of any person in Millington, and that the same shall be recoverable by said bank, in any court of law, or equity, and be good and valid, to all intents and purposes.

Repeal. Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That every part of the act, to which this is a supplement, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby abrogated and annulled.

CHAPTER 196.

Passed Mar. 14, 1833 A supplement to the act, entitled, "An act to Incorporate the Trustees of the Female Orphans' Society of Annapolis."

Preamble. WHEREAS, a number of ladies in Annapolis, who have associated for the laudable purpose of rearing and educating destitute female orphan children, represent to this Legislature that the interests of the objects of their charity and solicitude would be greatly promoted if they could be retained subject to the rules of the Institution, till they arrive at the age of eighteen; and the Legislature according with them in opinion—Therefore,

Authority to bind out. Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the Female Orphans' Society of Annapolis, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to bind out the Female Children under their charge, till they shall attain the age of eighteen years, or be married.

Wages after 16 years old. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of said trustees, in binding out said children, to require wages for their services, after they attain the age of sixteen years, to be paid over to said Orphans when they shall be respectively entitled to their discharge from service.