

said notice, sealed proposals to be presented to them for furnishing the same, and they shall make the said contract with such person or persons, as shall propose to furnish the said provisions on the terms most favorable to the institution.

CHAP. 210.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That no contract for the supply or victualling of the penitentiary, shall be made by the executive committee with any director thereof, unless the said committee shall have first given notice in all the daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, for one week; that they will receive sealed proposals to furnish the supply or victualling required; nor unless the proposal of the director with whom any contract may be made shall offer to furnish the supply required, and setting forth the quantity and quality of the same, upon the most favorable terms, and shall make his offer in the manner that shall be prescribed in said notice, for making all proposals; and every director before he acts as such, shall swear or affirm that he will not contract with said committee contrary to law, and a certificate of said oath, shall be deposited with the clerk of Baltimore city court; and any director knowingly swearing or affirming falsely in the premises, and being thereof convict in due course of law, shall suffer as in the case of wilful and corrupt perjury: and every provision contained in the original act, and its supplements inconsistent with this act, is hereby abrogated and annulled.

Restrictions as to contract with directors.

Oath of directors

Repeal.

CHAPTER 210.

An act to Divorce Ann Elizabeth Amanda Christiana Armstrong, from her husband Henry Armstrong, of Saint Mary's county.

Passed, Mar. 10, 1832

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Ann Elizabeth Amanda Christiana Armstrong, be henceforth divorced from her husband Henry Armstrong, of Saint Mary's county, and the marriage heretofore had and solemnized between them, is declared to be henceforth and forever null and void, and they are hereby declared to be mutually released from all and every duty and obligation, and benefit and advantage growing out, and in consequence of the said marriage, and the said Ann Elizabeth Amanda Christiana Armstrong, is hereby declared to be divorced a vinculo matrimonii.

Divorce granted.