

Arundel county, that the public convenience would be greatly promoted by opening the road which leads from John Steuart, (formerly the residence of Captain David Steuart,) through the lands of Thomas Davidson, of Edward Harvey, and of the heirs of the late Solomon Groves, and which intersects the public road near the land, but with the bounds of the farm of Robert W. Kent—Therefore,

CHAP. 254.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Stephen Beard, Thomas Hodges and Thomas Welsh, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they are authorised and required to open the road which leads from John Stuarts, (formerly the residence of Captain David Stuart,) through the lands of Thomas Davidson, of Edward Harvey, and of the heirs of the late Solomon Groves, and which intersects the public road near the land, but with the bounds of the farm of Robert W. Kent; and when said road shall be opened as required by the provisions of this act, the commissioners aforesaid, shall be required to report to the commissioners of Anne Arundel county, the expense of doing the same; and thereupon the commissioners of said county are hereby authorised and required to levy upon the assessable property of the county aforesaid, a sum of money sufficient to defray such expense.

Commissioners to open, &c.

Report.

Levy authorised.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners before they proceed to open said road, shall make oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, that they will faithfully perform the duties reposed in them by this act, to the best of their skill and judgment.

Oath prescribed.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That when said road shall be opened as aforesaid, it shall be taken and considered as a public highway, and as such shall be kept in repair by the county as other highways are.

Public highway.

CHAPTER 254.

An act relating to Pine Street, in the City of Baltimore. Passed Mar. 16, 1833

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of Pine street, as lies South of Baltimore street, now not opened, in the city of Baltimore, shall be opened before the first day of July next, and if not opened by that time, it shall remain forever closed.

Opened by July.

Or remain closed.