

CHAP. 271. teen hundred and seventeen, chapter sixteen, entitled, "An act to establish a Bank and incorporate a Company, under the title of the Planters' Bank of Prince George's county," and the several supplements thereto, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and eighteen, chapter one hundred and sixty-nine, and at December session, eighteen hundred and eighteen, chapter one hundred and seventy-one, be, and the same are hereby revived and declared to be in full force; and it is hereby further enacted, That the Planters' Bank of Prince George's county, be, and the same is hereby invested with all the powers granted by the original act of incorporation, and the foregoing several supplements thereto.

Capital limited to $500,000.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of the Bank shall not exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, to consist of twenty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

School tax required.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the Bank shall pay to the Treasurer of the Western Shore, the sum of twenty cents, upon the amount of every hundred dollars subscribed, and actually paid in, for each and every year after the said Bank has commenced operations, and during the continuance of its charter, which sum shall be applied according to the provisions of the original act of incorporation.

Limited to 1845.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That this act, and the act and supplements hereby revived, shall continue in force until the expiration of the year eighteen hundred and forty-five, and until the end of the next General Assembly which shall happen thereafter.

CHAPTER 271.

Passed Mar. 19, 1833. An act to provide for the payment of Jurors in Allegany County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The present mode of compensating Jurors in and for Allegany county, is greatly incompatible with the public interest and welfare, as well as oppressive to individuals, because of the distance of Cumberland, the County Town, from the residences of many who are summoned as Jurors, and because of their being compelled, from the present state of things, to remain unpaid for their services for the space of from nine to eighteen months, or otherwise to barter their certificates at a considerable discount—
Therefore,