

separately, in a well bound book, to be provided for the purpose, for each district. CHAP. 278.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That any person owning property, real or personal, or having charge of such as guardian or agent, shall deliver to the said assessor or assessors, when required, a true account of all such property owned by him, her or them, or under his, her or their care and management, and if any person or persons owning, or having the care or charge of such property as aforesaid, shall wilfully neglect or refuse to give such statement, with a view to lessen the same, he, she or they shall pay double the tax on the real value of such property. Statement of the property to be rendered.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That every person or persons, when required by the said assessors, shall give them a full and particular account of his, her, or their real and personal estate, and all the real and personal estate under his, her or their management, or in his, her, or their possession, liable to assessment; the person to whom the same belongs and the district in which the same may be, and if any person or persons shall refuse, or after reasonable notice, shall neglect to render such account, he, she, or they shall forfeit and pay, for the use of said county, the sum of fifty dollars, to be collected by suit in the name of the commissioners of said county, against such person or persons so refusing or neglecting; and the assessors, from the best information they can obtain, shall value the said property, and shall certify to the commissioners the property so valued, and also the said refusal or neglect; and the said commissioners shall double the assessment of such person or persons, and if any person or persons, shall give in a partial account of his, her, or their real and personal property, or of the real and personal property in his, her, or their possession, or under his, her, or their care and management, with the intention to avoid the payment of the assessment or tax on such property, such person or persons shall pay double tax on the real value of such property. Double tax in case of neglect.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the assessors shall inform themselves by all lawful ways and means, of all real and personal property in said county, and shall value the same according to the provisions of this act, and to the full cash value thereof. Particular account to be rendered.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That in case any of the said assessors shall die or be rendered incapable of acting before the appointment is completed, the commissioners of On refusal to render said account.

valuation prescribed Penalty.

At cash value. And double tax.

Case of vacancy. Case of partial account.

To avoid payment Liable to double tax.