

CHAPTER 32.

CHAP. 33.

An act to confirm the proceedings of the President and Managers of the Somerset Manufacturing Company, and to amend the style of the Corporation. Passed Feb. 5, 1833

WHEREAS, the operations of the Somerset Manufacturing Company have been suspended by reason of the burning of the Factories of the Steam Company of Princess Anne, and whereas the tanning and preparing of leather, the expression of oils, the carding, spinning, and weaving of domestic materials, and other works contemplated in the charter of said Company, are deemed to be promotive of the primary interests of the State;—Therefore, Preamble.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the proceedings of the President and Managers of the Somerset Manufacturing Company, being in conformity to the act of incorporation, are hereby confirmed; and the said President and Managers, or their survivors, may proceed to hold the annual election after due notice, at such time and place as may be most convenient to them. Proceedings confirmed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall henceforward be known by the style of "The Maryland Manufacturing Company." Election authorized.

CHAPTER 33.

An act to Incorporate the Patapsco Savings Institution, at Ellicott's Mills. Passed Feb. 7, 1833

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas B. Dorsey, Nath'l H. Ellicott, Edward Gray, Isaiah Mercer, R.M. Dorsey, F. Earlongher, B. Manaham, I. T. W. Dorsey, John Forrest, H. Ely, Geo. Ellicott, Benj. Palmer, Andrew McLaughlin, Wm. McLaughlin, Jos. L. White, Richard Partington, Wm. Denny, Wm. Ellicott, Samuel Smith, Geo. Cooke, R.G. Stockett, and all and every other person or persons, hereafter becoming members of the Patapsco Savings Institution, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be and they are hereby created and made a corporation and body politic, by the name and style of The Patapsco Savings Institution, and by that name shall have succession, and be Persons incorporated.

Corporate powers.