No. 28.

Resolution relative to the Public Lands.

Passed Feb'y. 21

WHEREAS, the National Domain was acquired by the whole American people, and therefore of right ought to enure for their common benefit; And whereas, the appropriation of the same to the colonization of the free colored people, to internal improvement, and to education, would essentially contribute to promote our internal security, to strengthen the bonds of our union, and to render us a permanently free, virtuous, enlightened and happy people;—
Therefore,
