

faithful execution of the duties of such officers, agents or servants, and to secure the said corporation from loss; to regulate the manner of making and receiving deposits, the form of certificates to be issued to depositors, and the mode of transferring the same; to invest the funds of the corporation as they shall deem most safe and beneficial; to admit members, and furnish proof of such admission; to exclude members when they have not any property in said corporation; to pay all expenses necessary to conduct the affairs of said corporation; and generally to pass all such by-laws as may be necessary for the exercise of the aforesaid powers, or the powers vested in the said corporation; and the same by-laws from time to time to alter and repeal; provided, that all such by-laws may be altered or repealed by a majority of the members assembled at any annual meeting, or at any general meeting called in pursuance of any by-law made for that purpose; and a majority of the members present at any annual or general meeting, may pass by-laws which shall be binding upon the directors; provided, that such by-laws shall not be contrary to the law of this State or of the United States.

Provisos.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall be capable of receiving from any free person or persons, any deposit or deposits of money, and shall have the power of investing all monies so received in public stock or other securities, at the discretion of the directors, and in the manner deemed by them most safe and beneficial.

Receive deposits.

Make investments.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That every person who shall be a regular weekly depositor of said corporation, and who shall have deposited not less than one dollar in each week for the period of twelve successive months, shall have the privilege of becoming a member of said corporation, and shall have the right to require and receive from the proper officer thereof under its by-laws a certificate of membership; and that when such depositor shall have received such certificate of membership, he shall thereby become entitled to all the rights and privileges of a member of said corporation under its by-laws, or under the provisions of this act; Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to confer authority on the Directors or Stockholders, by any rule or by-law to restrict or limit the number of weekly depositors, who may desire to deposit or become members of said corporation; provided, the amount made by each depositor be not less than the minimum sum of one dollar per week, and that they in all things comply

Membership.

Provisos.