

Presbyterian Church, in Salisbury in Worcester county, CHAPTER 8.
 being the same congregation—Therefore,

Be it enacted, That all the lands and tenements with Property vested.
 their appertenances, now vested in, or held in trust by persons for the use of the said Presbyterian Church at Rochawalking, and other property of the said church, shall be, and are hereby absolutely and unconditionally vested in the said committee and their successors, forever, for the use of the said Presbyterian Church, in Salisbury, in Worcester county.

CHAPTER 7.

An act to revive and continue an act, entitled, "An act to Passed Jan. 16, 1833
Incorporate the Union Insurance Company of Maryland."

Preamble.
 WHEREAS, it is represented that a revival and continuance of the charter of said Company will tend to facilitate the recovery of sundry claims for unlawful seizures and depredations on the commerce of the United States, during the late war, between France and other European Powers, and it appearing reasonable that such facility should be granted;—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Act revived and continued for ten years.
 That the act entitled, "an act to incorporate the Union Insurance Company of Maryland," be revived, and continued from the expiration of the same, for and during the term of ten years from the passage of this act, to enable them in their corporate name to recover all claims, dues, and demands, belonging or in any-wise appertaining to said company, and to settle finally all the concerns of said company, the same as if said act had not expired.

CHAPTER 8.

An act to authorise the clerk of Harford county, to record the Passed Jan. 16, 1833 deed of manumission therein mentioned.

Preamble.
 WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly by the petition of Elizabeth Smith, of Harford county, that she did manumit and set free her slave, Joseph Lisby, on the twenty ninth day of August, eighteen hundred and thirty one, and that from neglect, the deed was not recorded
