CHAPTER 55.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, "An act, vesting certain powers in the President of the United States."

Passed Feb-18, 1833

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the consent of this State is hereby given, and it shall be lawful for the President of the United States or any other person duly authorised by him, by virtue of any act of the Congress of the United States, now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted, in relation to the United States Road, commonly called the National Road, to change the location of part of said road, within the limits of this state, by beginning at the public square, in the Town of Cumberland, near the Hotel, owned by David Shriver, Esq. and running up Mechanic street, and the main street throughout, up Will's Creek, towards the narrows, and through the narrows, crossing Will's Creek at the most suitable place, then running along the Ravine of Braddock's Run, up to the present National Road, then running with the present National Road, with such deviations as will reduce the grade of said road, as far up as Frostburgh; Provided, that no other deviations shall be made from the principal points already established on said road within the limits of this State; And provided, That the part of said road now authorised to be made, by the said change of location, shall be made of the best materials, upon the McAdams plan; And provided, that a good substantial Stone Bridge shall be made over the Mill Race, in the Town of Cumberland, and over Will's Creek, at the place of crossing; and provided, That substantial Stone Bridges or Culvert's shall be made wherever the same may respectively be necessary along the line of said road.

Authority to change location of National Road.
