

and mutual co-habitation with her husband, David G. Stansbury. CHAP. 60.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said David G. Stansbury shall not, by virtue of his marriage with the said Sarah Ann Stansbury, be in any manner entitled to or authorised to have or claim any right, title, or interest, in the estate, real, personal, or mixed, of the said Sarah Ann Stansbury, to be acquired by her, subsequent to the passage of this act, nor shall the said Sarah Ann Stansbury be entitled to have or claim any right, title, or interest in the estate, real, personal, or mixed, of the said David G. Stansbury, to be acquired by him subsequent to the passage of this act. Rights and claims annulled.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Sarah Ann Stansbury shall have and exercise all the rights, privileges and immunities, and be subject to all the legal responsibilities of a feme sole, in the same manner she would have been if she never had been married. Rights as Feme sole.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said Sarah Ann Stansbury be, and she is hereby declared to be entitled to the custody and guardianship of her children by her present marriage, during their minority, and that she and they be, and they are hereby authorised to resume, take, use, and be known by her maiden surname of Scott. Guardianship conferred.
Resume name.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said David G. Stansbury shall not be liable for any debts to be hereafter contracted by the said Sarah Ann Stansbury. Liability annulled.

CHAPTER 60.

An act to divorce Eliza Selby, of Baltimore city, from her husband James Selby. Passed Feb. 16, 1833

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Eliza Selby, of Baltimore city, be, and she is hereby divorced from the bed and board of, and mutual co-habitation with, her husband James Selby. Divorce granted.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That she may and shall henceforth take, and be known by the name of Eliza Farrin; that she shall be subject to all the legal responsibilities, and have and exercise all the rights and privileges of a feme sole, except that of marrying again, in the same manner as if she had never been married; that the said James Selby shall not, by virtue of his marriage with the Name changed.