CHAPTER 74.

Passed Feb. 19, 1833

An act relating to the Stone Church House, commonly called the Manor Church, in Frederick county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, a certain Martin Waltz, (now deceased,) did, by his last will and testament, bearing date the ninth day of November, eighteen hundred and twenty-two, duly authenticated and recorded in the Register's office of the county aforesaid, direct that one quarter of an acre of land, on which the stone church stands, be forever given to the use of the Lutheran and Reformed Churches, under the care of ministers, who are regularly established in said churches, in Frederick-town, and none other;—
Therefore,

Manner of regulating.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,
That the Ministers of the Lutheran and Reformed Churches, in Frederick-town, regularly established in said churches, be forever authorized to preach in the Stone Church House, commonly called the Manor Church, in Frederick county, at such time or times, as shall be fixed upon by the elders and deacons, chosen by both the Lutherans and Reformed members, generally attending service in said church, the elders and deacons of said church to be appointed in the manner as practised at the time, and before the death of the said Martin Waltz, be selecting or appointing two persons, belonging to thy Lutheran and two to the Reformed Churches, as elders, and two persons of each as deacons, whose duty it shall be from time to time to manage the concerns of the said church, as they were from the time of building said church, to the death of the said Martin Waltz, and that the said eight persons so elected, shall from time to time elect one of their own members as Treasurer, to hold and take charge of all monies, collected in said church, to be applied for the benefit thereof, and no other.
