CHAPTER 79.

Passed Feb. 20, 1833 An act for the benefit of the Bank of Westminster, in Frederick county.

Preamble:

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, by the memorial of the President and Directors of the Bank of Westminster, in Frederick county, that it is doubtful whether they are competent, under existing legislative enactments, to exercise certain powers and functions, deemed useful and expedient, in the operations of said Bank, and as it is manifestly inconvenient that any such doubt should continue—Therefore,

Authority to buy, hold and sell property.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful, for the Bank of Westminster, in Frederick county, to purchase and hold, and at any time after to sell and convey any lands, tenements and hereditaments, or any estate or interest therein, which may be sold under any decree of the high court of Chancery, or of any county court, setting as a court of Chancery, heretofore passed or hereafter to be passed, for the payment of any debt, due or to become due, or hereafter to be contracted,
