

the bill authorising a lottery to raise a sum of money for the purpose of building a mill in Worcester county, endorsed "will not pass."

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

W E D N E S D A Y, November 26, 1806.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. C. D. Hodges has leave of absence.

The house proceeded to the second reading of the bill to incorporate the stockholders in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore; on progression the question was put, That the following be inserted after the fourth section? viz. "And be it enacted, That no subscriber or stockholder, or member of the said company, shall be answerable in his person, or individual property, for any contract or engagement of said company, or for any losses, deficiencies or failure, of the capital stock of said company, but the whole of the said capital stock, together with all property, rights and credits, belonging to the said institution, and nothing more, shall at all times be answerable for the demands against the said company." Resolved in the affirmative.

On further progression, the question was put, That the words "together with such others as may be hereafter appointed by the state," be inserted before the word "nine" in the sixth section? Resolved in the affirmative.

On further progression, the question was put, That the following be inserted after the sixth section? viz. "And be it enacted, That whenever the state shall become a stockholder to the amount of forty thousand dollars, she shall be entitled to appoint two directors, and when the state shall be a stockholder to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, she shall be entitled to three directors, and the election of said directors shall be annually made by joint ballot of both houses, either during the session of the general assembly at which such investment shall be made, or is directed to be made, or the first session after the state shall so have become a stockholder to the respective amounts aforesaid." Resolved in the affirmative.

On further progression, the question was put, That the words "except the directors appointed on the part of the state," be inserted after the word "thereof" in the second article? Resolved in the affirmative.

On further progression the question was put, That the words "except as before excepted" be inserted at the end of the second article? Resolved in the affirmative.

On progression, the question was then put, That the words "8th. The notes or bills obligatory which shall be lawful for the said corporation to issue shall not be for a less sum than five dollars," be inserted after the seventh article? Resolved in the affirmative.

On further progression, the question was put, That the words "twenty-seven" be stricken out of the last section? Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the word "fifteen" be inserted in lieu of the words stricken out? Resolved in the affirmative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, That the further consideration thereof be postponed until to-morrow? Resolved in the affirmative.

The report on the petition of Edward Reynolds, of Calvert county, was read the second time, and the question put, That the house concur with the said report, and assent to the resolution therein contained? Resolved in the affirmative.
