

Mr. Kuhn, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of sundry inhabitants of Frederick and Washington counties, praying that a law may pass authorising them to open a road in said counties, report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and are of opinion that the prayer thereof is reasonable, but in as much as it does not appear to your committee that public notice had been given of their intention to petition this legislature for the passage of such a law, their prayer cannot be granted at the present session, and that the petitioners have leave to withdraw their said petition.

By order,

Which was read the first and second time by especial order and concurred with.

On the second reading of the supplement to an act, entitled, An act to establish permanent salaries for the judges of the six judicial districts in this state, the question was put, That the blank be filled up with the words "eight hundred?" Determined in the negative.

The question was then put on "three hundred." Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the further consideration thereof be referred to the next general assembly? Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Pearce, from the committee, delivers to the speaker the following report:

THE committee to whom was referred the petition of Jasper E. Tilley, late sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, report, that they have taken the same into consideration, and are of opinion that full and ample provision is already afforded to the petitioner to complete his collections as sheriff aforesaid, on his complying with the requisites and provisions of the act of November session, seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, chapter thirty-one, entitled, An act enlarging the time for collection of officers fees by execution. The committee are also of opinion, that the petitioner ought not to be exempted or relieved from the performance of the duties prescribed by the provision of that act, that his prayer is unreasonable and ought not to be granted, and that he have leave to withdraw his said petition.

By order,

L. GASSAWAY, clk.

Which was read the first and second time by especial order and concurred with.

The clerk of the senate delivers the following messages:

By the S E N A T E, January 3, 1867.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

THE bill, entitled, An act for the encouragement of learning in this state, originated in your house, has, after the most serious consideration, received our negative. By this bill, as passed your house, more than the sum of 30,000 dollars is appropriated to be paid annually out of money in the treasury, by which provision no doubt can be entertained that it is within the meaning of the constitution a money bill, and being such, the senate are constitutionally precluded from all alteration and amendment. To this bill, from which you have
