So it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion, That the following be added to said bill? to wit: "And be it enacted, That in addition to the salary now paid to the chief judge of the first judicial district, the sum of — dollars shall be paid in the manner aforesaid," the question was put, That the blank therein be filled up with the words "four hundred?" Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, That the said bill be referred to the first day of June next? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The following resolution was read.

Whereas the duties imposed on the chief judge of the sixth judicial district are peculiarly arduous, therefore, RESOLVED, That there be allowed to the chief judge of the sixth judicial district the sum of six hundred dollars, in addition to the salary now allowed him by law.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill to provide for the making an alteration in the road therein mentioned, the bill making compensation to the criers of the court of appeals, and the sheriffs attending the said courts for the preservation of order therein, the bill authorising the collection of certain ground-rents due on lots in the town of Cumberland, in Allegany county, the bill to prevent swine from going at large in North Sassafras, West Sassafras and Bohemia Hundreds, in Cæcil county, the bill to prevent swine and geese going at large in Frederick-town, in Cæcil county, and the further supplement to an act, entitled, An act to straighten part of the road in Harford county which leads from Underhill's mill to the city of Baltimore, severally endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. Also the supplement to the bill for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, endorsed "will not pass." Also the resolutions in favour of Ninian Pinkney, John Brewer, Richard Butler, Samuel Moale, William Ferguson and Joseph Howard, and others, severally endorsed "dissenting from." And the resolution relative to the land-office, endorsed "assented to."

On motion, the question was put, That the house reconsider the bill to ascertain and establish a permanent salary to the governor of this state? Resolved in the affirmative.

On progression, the question was put, That the blank therein be filled up with the words "four thousand?" Determined in the negative.

The question was then put on "thirty-six hundred." The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
