Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

WE have dissented from your resolution in favour of John Trueman. If your house will originate a resolution, giving to him the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, and the like sum to the widow of Edward Roberts, late messenger of the senate, to be applied by her to the support and maintenance of herself and family, it will meet our concurrence. It is represented to us, that the said Edward Roberts was a brave and most meritorious soldier during the revolutionary war. The members of the senate, acquainted with his services as their late officer, bear ample testimony to his attentive and faithful discharge of his duties as their messenger, and his family are left in a very indigent and destitute situation.
