

Mr. Tilghman, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of James Mulvany, of Washington county; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The supplement to an act authorising a lottery to raise a sum of money for the purpose of finishing the steeple of Saint-John's church, in Elizabeth-town, in Washington county, and for other purposes, was read the second time and passed.

The house resumed the consideration of the resolutions disapproving of the embargo, and after sometime spent in debating the same,

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

S A T U R D A Y, November 26, 1808.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The supplement to an act authorising a lottery to raise a sum of money for the purpose of finishing the steeple of Saint John's church, in Elizabeth-town, in Washington county, and for other purposes, was sent to the senate by the clerk.

A petition from Thomas Owings, and others, of Baltimore county, praying they may be authorised to open a road from said Owings's fulling mill to the public road leading to Baltimore city, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Randall, Mr. Harryman, Mr. Stansbury, Mr. Brown and Mr. R. Steuart, to consider and report thereon.

A petition from the grand jury of Queen-Anne's county, stating that the judges of said county court have decided that the evidence of one free negro is not competent against another in capital cases, and praying that the propriety of remedying the inconveniencies resulting therefrom may be taken into consideration, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Scott, Mr. Spencer, Mr. Wright, Mr. Stansbury and Mr. Dorsey, to consider and report thereon.

The house resumed the consideration of the resolutions disapproving the embargo, and, on motion, the question was put, That the house concur therewith? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:
