The following message was read, agreed to, and with the bill therein mentioned, sent to the senate by the clerk.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 19, 1808.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

WE send you back the bill, entitled, An act for the preservation of the breed of wild deer in Dorchester county, which was negatived by your house. As it is a local law, and the whole delegation, and almost all the inhabitants of said county, are anxious that such a law should pass, we hope, upon reconsideration, you will pass the same.

By order,

J. BREWER, clk.

The bill to authorise and empower the levy court of Baltimore county to assess and levy a sum of money for the support and maintenance of Richard Bond, the bill to prevent persons from staking out seines across the river Wicomico, in Somerset county, and the bill to pay the civil list, and other expenses of civil government, were read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.
