By order,

T. ROGERS, clk.

The following resolution was read.

RESOLVED, That all interest which may hereafter accrue on the sum of one thousand pounds, loaned by the state of Maryland to the trustees of Charlotte Hall school, in virtue of an act of assembly passed at November session, eighteen hundred and two, be and the same shall hereby be released to the trustees aforesaid for the benefit of the said school; and the treasurer of the western shore is hereby directed to endorse such release, annually, on the bond heretofore lodged in the treasury for the payment of the sum so as aforesaid loaned.

And the question put, That the house assent to the same? Determined in the negative.

The following resolutions were read, assented to, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

RESOLVED, That the printer to the state be directed to print five hundred copies of the act, entitled, A further supplement to an act for regulating the mode of staying executions, and repealing the acts of assembly therein mentioned.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be requested to forward five copies of the said bill to each member of the legislature.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill to lay out and open a road in Anne-Arundel county from John Crow's mill to Mary Puc's lane, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read, agreed to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed. Also the bill to abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the time and manner of electing the senate, and the mode of filling up vacancies in that body, and the bill to lay out a road therein mentioned, severally endorsed, "will not pass." Also the resolutions in favour of the examiner-general, John Sullivan, and the resolution relative to the contingent fund, severally endorsed, "assented to." The resolution directing the executive to give notice so as to ascertain the number of officers and soldiers of the Maryland line who are unprovided for, endorsed, "assented to with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read. And the engrossed bills No. 111, 112 and 116, severally endorsed, "read and assented to."

The engrossed bill No. 116 was read, assented to, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

ORDERED, That the bill, entitled, An act to abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the time and manner of electing the senate, and the mode of filling up vacancies in that body, be published with the votes and proceedings of this house for the information of the people.

The following resolution was read the first and second time by especial order.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorised and directed, to subscribe for fourteen hundred shares in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, for twelve hundred shares in the Mechanics Bank of Baltimore, for two hundred and fifty shares in the Baltimore and Frederick-town turnpike road stock, for two hundred and fifty shares in the Baltimore and York town turnpike road stock, and to pay the amount of the shares, so subscribed, to the president and managers of the respective companies.

And the question put, That the house assent to the same? Resolved in the affirmative. Which was sent to the senate by the clerk.

The house adjourns until 4 o'clock P. M.
