

The Lord proprs
Winiford Croff

The saidd ft being respou
sd for stealing things
at Edward Hitchinore

The Court ord^d she shall be taken into custody by the sheriff

The witnesses being sworn sworn she is tryed by a Jury

The Jury being called as follows

- | | | |
|--------------------------|---|-----------------------------------|
| John Bayn foreman | } | Morgan Jones |
| Sam ^l Wheeler | | The Coror |
| John Jones | | Cornelius Combes Jun ^r |
| Georg: Green | | John Downes |
| W ^m Thomas | | W ^m Hodges |
| W ^m Edwin | | John Chandler |

The said Jury being sworn heard Edward's words & their charge got forth. They returned being their verdict & say W^m the Jurors find Winiford Croff guilty of stealing one Coife to the value of two pound Sterling.

The Court receiving the Jurys verdict do ord^r her punishment saying w^t a twynly lashes on hir bare back sh^e pleading bigg w^t sh^eild: hir punishment is suspnd:
untill deliv^{ry} in the mean tyme to be of good behavour.

This Court ord^d sh^e sh^eriff to take hir into custody until sh^e give s^urety for hir good ob^{er}vance and ass^urance at the next Court to be hold for this County

Edward James offerd himself s^urety w^t the Court assess off

Edward James doth acknowleg^e himselfe to stand ju^dic^lly to the Right Hon^{ble} the Lord proprs in the sum of f^our pound ster^l to be levied of hir lands and tenements goods and chatt^{els} if that the said Winiford Croff be not of good a bar an^d and behavour to his good^{ty} and all his good^{ty} & good prop^{ty} and mak^e her personall app^{er}ance the Court

W^m the Sheriff