

likewise called the Court demanded of the Jury whether the said Edward Poffo and Elizabeth North were guilty according to the said presentment, which Jury by their foreman answered guilty, And Edward Poffo and Elizabeth <sup>North</sup> by Charles Basse more and arrested the Judgment upon which Matthew Darickton H desired they may be bound to their good behavior and appearance at next Court Thomas <sup>Horons</sup> becomes security for both Edward Poffo becomes bound unto their Maj<sup>ties</sup> King William and Queen Mary in the sum of 10 lib: mony of England to be forfeited of his Lands and Tenements goods or Chattels if he be not of good behavior if he be not of good behavior to all their Maj<sup>ties</sup> good people or do not make his personall appearance at this next Court

Thomas Horons becomes security for Edward Poffo and Elizabeth North and acknowledgeth himself bound unto their Maj<sup>ties</sup> King William and Queen Mary in the sum of five poundes lib: mony of England to be forfeited of his Lands and Tenements goods and Chattels if Edward Poffo and Elizabeth North be not of good behavior to all their Maj<sup>ties</sup> good people or do not make their personall appearance at this next Court

Robert Browne being presented by the grand Jury at Swajour of the fifth War and not keeping them in good repair the said Robert Browne presents a Petition to this Court wherein he saith that he was a long tined Lame which was the cause of the Rog out

Therefore it is ordered by this Court that the said Robert Browne be discharged from the said presentment: Simon Wilmer