

Arg 53/256

John Cronary being presented by the grand, and being called to answer the said presentment which is as followeth

Know all the Jurors for our Sovereign Lord and Lady King William and Queen Mary upon their Oath do present John Cronary of Kent Island in the Jurisdiction of this Court Pleasur, by the common fame that he the said John to wit the Constable of September last past he the said John the house of one Thomas Dexter on Kent Island a forcible did enter and there did feloniously take and bear away one silk handkerchief to the value of two shillings and six pence being of the proper effects of the said Thomas Dexter contrary to their Majesties laws and the Verdict in such cases made and provided

Richard for Don R & R

To which presentment the said John Cronary pleaded not guilty and for his defence himselfe upon God and the Country which Country was as followeth

Edward Baldwin	John Hurt	John Lewis
William Bateman	James Ringgold	Robt. Broome
Samuel Meredith	John Cogdell	Samuel Manthorpe
James Dooley	John Hull	Edward Forde

The Jurors as above being duly sworn and the presentment being again read to which the said Cronary pleaded not guilty, and for and the same being found, but no substantial proof appearing to the Court and Jury who without coming from the Bar, and being again called according to their respective oaths above and Cronary likewise if found demanded of the Jury whether the said Cronary be guilty of the said presentment to which they by their foreman answered not guilty

Simon Wilmer