

David Davison Coroner bound unto our Sovereign Lord the King in the sum of forty pound of sterling money of England to be levied of his Land & Tenement goods and Chattels provided he make not his personal appearance at this next County Court and in the meane tyme be of good Abeyance to all his Masters good proper ten: he gave his ransome

Griffith Jones & Thomas Hix Coroner bound unto our Sovereign Lord the King in the sum of twenty pound of sterling money of England to be levied of his Land and Tenement goods and Chattels provided David Davison did not make his personal appearance at this next County Court and in the meane tyme be of good Abeyance to all Mas^{rs} good proper to which they gave their ransome

Richard Mason & John Hurt Coroner bound unto our Sovereign Lord the King in the sum of four pound of sterling money of England to be levied of his Land & Tenement goods and Chattels provided they did not make their personal appearance at this next County Court & their give in their Evidence at John Hodges & Richard Morris at the suit of the King to which they gave their ransome

John Rawlinson Coroner bound unto our Sovereign Lord the King in the sum of twenty pound of sterling money of England to be levied of his Land and Tenement goods and Chattels provided he did not personally appear at this next County Court their to prosecute David Davison according to certain information at the suit of the King to which he gave his ransome