

Solomon Wiley At makes Catti that he hath attended as an Evidour in an Action betwixt Dennis Fenwick vs and Samuel Saylor defendt: five dayes for which desires allowance which is accordingly ordered

Charles Hosteningsworth likewise makes Catti that he attended in the same Action Countre vs Saylor seven dayes for which he desires allowance and is accordingly ordered

Simon Wilmer

Edward Smith is by this Court appointed as Overseer of the High Way and likewise ordered that he raise a fair Road to be cleared from Thomas Pennock's Plantation down to the River side against where the Court house is now appointed

George Elliot appointed as Overseer of the High way to raise a fair road to be cleared touching from Collins his Mill to strike out all the path leading to Charles Hosteningsworth's Plantation to be well cleared and fairly made from the said Path down to the River side over against where the Court house is now appointed

Court adjourns until tomorrow night of the next Land for attending the County Charge

Simon Wilmer