

And thereupon the sd John by his Attorney Mark Lincolne his Atty complains that Whereas the sd Charles on the 12th day of November Anno Domini 1696 at Chester River within the Jurisdiction of this Court at the Esquire instance and request of him the sd Charles the sd John did deliver unto him the sd Charles by the way of loan One Hundred and twenty four ^{foot} by the Hood with good new sailer good standing and running Rigging with Cables and Anchor all of the value of twenty and four pounds current money of England to the only and proper use of him the said Charles Webb and his service to carry and bring goods Wares and Merchandise by Boat and the sd Chester River and a certain Patuxent River to be returned by the sd Charles to the sd John Hanckins at or before the 28th day of November then next following the delivery thereof In consideration thereof the sd Charles upon himself assumed and to the sd John faithfully promised that he the sd Charles the sd shallop sailer and Varkling aforesaid unto the said John at Chester River aforesaid and at or before the time aforesaid would well and lawfully Redeliver Yett never theless the sd Charles his promise and assumption little regarding but plotting contriving and fraudulently intending him the sd John in this behalf craftily and subtilly to deceive and defraud the sd shallop: with Rigging Sailer and other the Varklin unto the sd John he hath not redelivered but the same to do he hath denied & Refused and as Yett cometh and refuseth to the damage of the sd John Hanckins fifty pounds ster: and thereupon he bringeth this suit

Mark Lincolne q^r: pro: q: re: vs: J^r: Do: Hanckins

And the sd Defend^t: by Michael Earle his Atty: produced to this Court a Habere Corpus cum causa for transmitting y^e said Action to the Provincial Court