

207

At a Court held for Kent County of 25th day of ^{the} 16th of in the South Ward of the County of William the Third of England Scotland France and Ireland King &c. Anno Domini 1687

This day being by Order of Court Appointed for the Electing of four Delegates or Representatives pursuant to a certain Writ directed to the Sheriffs of this County bearing date the day of Anno Domini 1687 present { May: Thomas Smyth } Capt: Thomas Ruygole } Justices { Mr: John Whittington } {

 { Mr: Charles Henson } Mr: Phillip Hopkin }

The Court being soth ordered that the Electors be called to show the above mentioned Writ and Proclamation being by the Court accordingly made and a very large appearance the Writ is publicly in Court read by the Sheriff which being performed, the Court giveth the Electors some reason and advice and then Order, them to proceed to their Election & May: Thomas Smyth and Mr: Michael Miller are by the Court chosen Nomine contradieto and are brought in and presented to this Court to see their Proclamations signed And the said Electors againe proceed and some vote for Mr: William Harris and others for Mr: John Whittington and the Electors on each side desired as yet to be brought forward that Mr: John Whittington received said Writ by several votes And the said Electors further proceed and those named in the writ make up the number mentioned in said Writ all which the Court being brought into Court and their names signed for each of them and the said Election is soth performed