

329

And now here at this day the said cause standing for trial and the said pet by William Earl the Attorney on his behalf by the said Attorney and his pet declares with

That to the Robert Dandridge of the County of Kent was attached to answer unto Richard Wallis and Anna his wife of a plea that wherefore with force and Arm of an Assault upon the Body of her the said Anna he the said Robert did make and he did beat wound and evilly Entreat so that of her life she did despair and other Enormities to her the said Anna he the said Robert did do contrary to the peace of our Sovereign Lord the King &c. and to the great damage of the said Richard and Anna his wife &c.

And whereupon the said pet by William Earl the Attorney said that whereas the said Robert Dandridge the sixth day of September Anno Dom 1647 in Eastmore North Hundred within the Jurisdiction of this Court with force and Arm of an Assault upon the Body of her the said Anna did make and he the said Anna then and there did beat wound and evilly Entreat so that of her life she did despair and other Enormities to her the said Anna him the said Robert did do to the great damage of the said pet and contrary to the peace of our Sovereign Lord the King &c. whereupon the said pet says that they are damaged and have received damage to the value of Ten thousand pounds of Silver and thereupon they bring this Action unto the Court of the said Robert

Quon of the Brit Original Marklin & Vof:

Not guilty and of this he puts himself upon his Country Marklin
And the pett saith he is guilty Earle &c.

Command was therefore given to the Sheriff of Kent County to raise enough good and lawful men of his Bailliwick to come to the this Court to try the said Cause at a good &c. &c.

John Dandridge	John Huot	Thomas Dandridge	Jurors
Thomas Dandridge	George Smith	William Boulton
Wm. Dandridge	Wm. Glanville	Thomas Smith
Wm. Dandridge	John Mott	Henry Green	