

13

That by his Writ of Summons in effect to bring his Judgment to affirm of his Damages he, Justice of Judged Sir R. Coffe the Lawyer for retaining & Execution of the writ of Exce. w<sup>t</sup> can both always formerly bin observed but now by this illegal proceeding of Complain Execution and quite destroy not knowing how to recover of his Cost but by his Indictments of the Sheriff in the Court held at Oxford of A Sherrif. & his herein Pursued by the force of his Statute 13 Edw: 5: 59: Imposing to the Justices upon Complainant above to make Judiciall writt signifying to Justices of the Countyall Court of Oxford to y<sup>e</sup> end that Justitice may be had thereupon =

This Complaint Exhibited by me James Ringgold =

15 May 1683

Beth knowne to all men by these presents: That I Hugh Prokes of the County of England a Gentleman of the County of Kent plant<sup>d</sup> have y<sup>e</sup> day = the 15th Date whereof received of William Harris of t<sup>e</sup> County of Kent one aforesaid part of my portion of Estate that belonys to my wife = my Daughter to Richard Willis citizen of t<sup>e</sup> County of Kent and ther by these presents acknowledge to have Received full satisfaction according to y<sup>e</sup> Recd<sup>d</sup> Both make mention: And doth also acquitt exonerate & discharge the said William Harris his heirs Executors Administrators or Assignes of his former Estate: for me my heirs Executors Administrators or Assignes to do likewise acquitt vs 20 days from t<sup>e</sup> 10th from all his accounts records entrynges Recorings or Demands from the beginning of the world to this present Day as wills my hand the one & twentieth Day of May = Signed sealed and delivered = The mark of = 1683 in presence of us = Hugh H Prokes - (seal)
William Dibond
John Marshall