An ACT to lay out and open a road from John Orme's plantation to intersect the main road leading from William Darne's to Montgomery county court-house.

Passed 31st of Dec. 1801.

WHEREAS sundry inhabitants of Montgomery county have, by petition to this general assembly, prayed that a road may be opened from John Orme's plantation to intersect the main road leading from William Darne's to Montgomery county court-house; and the same appearing reasonable, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Charles Gassaway, William Darnes and Richard West, or any two of them, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to survey, lay out and open a road, to intersect the main road leading from William Darne's to Montgomery county court-house, at the expence of the petitioners, not exceeding thirty feet in width, in the following direction, to wit: Leaving the old public road opposite Archibald Orme's plantation, and running with the lands of Thomas Beall, of George, and the heirs of Johnsey Gaither, as the road now runs, thence with the lands of Thomas Beall, of George, and the heirs of Samuel Clagett, as the road now runs, by the Union mills, then through the lands of James Lackland and Elisha O. Williams, leaving their plantations to the south, to the Union chapel, then from said chapel, through the land called The Pines, till it intersects the main road leading from William Darnes's to Montgomery county court-house, at or near the upper end of the plantation of Thomas Nicholls, and Simon; and a plot of said road, when surveyed and laid out, together with a certificate and courses of the same, shall be returned by the commissioners to the levy court of Montgomery county, to be there recorded; and the said road when opened, shall for ever thereafter be deemed and taken to be a public highway, and repaired in the same manner as other public roads in said county are repaired.

Commissioners appointed, &amp;c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That on application of the party or parties interested, the said commissioners, or any two of them, shall ascertain and value what damages may be sustained by any person or persons through whose land the said road shall pass, and the same, when so ascertained and assessed, shall be paid, or secured to be paid, by the said petitioners, before the commissioners appointed by this act shall proceed to open the said road; provided always, that if any person or persons through whose land the said road shall pass, or his, her or their guardian or trustee, shall conceive themselves aggrieved by such valuation and assessment of damages, it shall and may be lawful for the said commissioners, or any two of them, to issue their warrant to the sheriff of the county, to summon twelve disinterested freeholders of said county, to appear on the premises, on a day by them to be appointed, and the commissioners are hereby authorised to administer an oath to every person so summoned, that he will, without favour, affection, partiality or prejudice, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons at whose request such inquisition shall be taken, by reason of opening said road through his, her or their land, and the persons so summoned and sworn shall thereupon proceed to value and assess the damages accordingly, of which the said petitioners, or some one of them, shall have five days previous notice at the least, and such inquisition shall be final and conclusive between the parties.

Who shall ascertain damages, &amp;c.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners shall not lay out or open the said road through the buildings, gardens, yards, orchards or meadows, of any person or persons, without his or their consent.

Not to go thro' buildings, &amp;c.
