

tive thereto, and the said account, so exhibited upon oath or affirmation, when the same shall have passed the said levy court, shall be lodged in the clerk's office of Baltimore county.

C H A P.
LXXVII.

XV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners of review, heretofore appointed, shall, at the said sitting of the levy court next after the passage of this act, deliver to the said levy court, all books, accounts and proceedings, relative to the said turnpike roads, and render, upon oath or affirmation, a just and fair account of all the monies received by them, or paid to their order, and also an account of all expenditures by them made as commissioners of review, and also account with the said levy court for all monies received, and not by them expended, and pay the same to the said levy court, or their order, and in case of neglect or refusal, the said levy court are hereby authorised and required to commence a suit or suits for the recovery of the same.

Commissioners to deliver books, &c.

XVI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the supervisor appointed by the commissioners of review, and acting as such at the commencement of this act, when thereto required by the levy court, shall and he is hereby directed to deliver over to the supervisor to be appointed in virtue of this act, all the criminals that shall then be in his charge, or at labour on the turnpike roads of Baltimore county, and also all waggons, carts, harness, geers, horses, oxen and mules, employed on said turnpike roads, and belonging to the county, and also all provisions, provender of every kind, tools, implements, arms, accoutrements, furniture, and all other articles and things furnished and supplied by the said county for the use of the said roads, and the criminals working thereon, and shall also render an account, on oath or affirmation, to the justices of the levy court, of all monies by him received, and of all monies by him expended, within twelve months last past, and pay over the monies in his hands to the justices of the levy court, and upon neglect or refusal to account for and pay over the same, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of Baltimore county court, upon motion of, and at the instance and in behalf of, the said levy court, to direct judgment to be entered against such supervisor, and his securities, upon his bond by him and them given as aforesaid, for the penalty thereof, and cost, to be released upon the payment of such money as shall be by him due and owing, and the said court may thereupon award execution upon the said judgments, provided the said supervisor, and his securities, or such of them as it is moved for that judgment shall be entered against, shall have had ten days notice previous to the term at which such motion shall be made, of the intension of the levy court to move for such judgment.

Criminals to be delivered over, &c.

XVII. AND, as a further fund to enable the said levy court to make the said roads, and to pay all damages or value assessed therefor, and for the support of the criminals adjudged to labour on said roads, and in making, cleaning and repairing, the streets and bason of Baltimore-town, BE IT ENACTED, That the sum of fifty cents shall be and hereby is laid and imposed for every hundred pounds worth of property within Baltimore county, and in the same proportion for every greater or less sum, and the said tax shall be paid and collected annually with the county tax, and in the same manner, and the collector shall pay the amount of the said tax by him collected to such person or persons as the said court shall appoint to receive the same, who shall from time to time pay the same to their order, and the said tax shall continue until the said roads shall be made and completed in the manner directed by this act; and the said levy court may, on the credit of the said tax, borrow on interest, not exceeding six per cent. any sum of money they may think proper and necessary, not exceeding the sum of sixteen hundred dollars in any one year, to make and complete the said roads; and the said levy court shall, in every year, publish in the Baltimore newspapers an account of the said money by them received and expended in virtue of this act.

A tax imposed, &c.

XVIII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That any toll to be collected on any of the roads aforesaid shall belong to Baltimore county, and shall be collected and applied to the use of said county for ever, the said county maintaining and repairing the said roads in the order and condition directed and required by this act.

Tolls to belong to Baltimore county, &c.

XIX. AND BE IT ENACTED, That any waggon, cart or other carriage, loaden or unloaden, having the felloes of the wheels thereof of six inches from side to side at the least, (the tread or bottom of such felloes to be as flat and even from side to side as may be,) may pass any turnpike gate on paying only one half the tolls hereby imposed for five years from the passing of this act.

Certain carriages to pay half tolls.

XX. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person shall drive any black cattle, sheep or hogs, or any riding carriage, waggon, cart or other carriage of burthen, round any toll gate, with intention to evade the payment of the toll, and if any person shall ride, lead or drive, any horse or mule

Penalty for evading payment, &c.