

C H A P.
LXXXII.

convenience derived in consequence of the opening and extending the said street, and praying that a law may pass authorising the mayor and city council of Baltimore to appropriate part of the city funds towards defraying the expence thereof; therefore,

Mayor, &c.
may appropriate
city funds,
&c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the mayor and city council of Baltimore, by their ordinance, to appropriate so much of the city funds as they may deem adequate for the benefit which the public have derived by the opening and extending Second-street in the city of Baltimore, and to apportion and pay such sum or sums of money, so appropriated and apportioned, to each and every person whose property has heretofore been charged and made liable for the expence incurred under the operation of an act of the general assembly, entitled, An act for the opening of Second-street in the city of Baltimore, and the several supplements thereto.

C H A P. LXXXIII.

Passed 7th of January, 1804.

An ACT relating to the inspection of flour and other articles in the precincts of the city of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that many persons residing in the precincts of the city of Baltimore labour under great disadvantages by reason of the inspectors of said city not being authorised to inspect flour and other articles within the said precincts; for remedy whereof,

Laws to extend to the precincts,
&c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the laws heretofore passed, or hereafter to be passed, respecting the inspection of flour, provisions, butter and liquors, and the ordinances of the corporation of the city of Baltimore, so far as the same relate to the inspection of flour, provision, butter and liquors, shall extend, and are hereby extended, to the precincts of said city, in as full and ample a manner as if the precincts of the city of Baltimore had been mentioned therein, and the different inspectors, authorised for that purpose by the mayor and city council, shall have the same power to inspect any flour, provisions, butter or liquors, in the precincts of the city of Baltimore, that they now have in said city, and shall, when called upon, inspect flour, provisions, butter or liquors, in the precincts, in the same manner, and under the same restrictions and penalties, that are imposed in case of failing to inspect the like articles in the city of Baltimore, and the different inspectors shall be entitled to the same fees for inspections in the precincts as they are authorised to receive for inspections under the laws of this state, or under the ordinances of the corporation of the city of Baltimore, in said city, and all acts done by the inspectors appointed for the city of Baltimore, within the precincts of said city, shall be as valid as if the said inspections had been made within the said city; provided that nothing in this act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorise any inspector of flour to inspect the same in or at any mill within the said precincts.

C H A P. LXXXIV.

Passed 7th of January, 1804.
Preamble.

An ACT to revive and aid the proceedings of Calvert county court.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the county court of Calvert county stood adjourned until the twelfth day of the present month of December, and that no one of the justices, or clerk of the said court, attended to call and adjourn the same, whereby divers actions, suits and proceedings, both civil and criminal, were discontinued, and the said justices cannot legally hold the said court until the next meeting appointed by law; for aiding therefore the said actions, suits and proceedings, and for saving as far as may the suitors from the damage that might otherwise be occasioned by such discontinuance, Actions, &c. revived, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all actions, suits, indictments, pleas, process and proceedings, depending in the said court on the said twelfth day of December instant, and all actions since commenced, or hereafter to be commenced, shall be and are hereby revived and continued, and shall be in the same state and condition, to all intents and purposes, as if the said court had met and been continued by regular and lawful adjournments, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; provided always, that nothing in this act shall extend to, or affect or make liable, the bail or security for any person's appearance at the said court to have been held on the twelfth instant, in any action or indictment, unless in the case of a person under prosecution for any crime or misdemeanor a default was entered on the recognizance before the said discontinuance, or the sheriff was amerced before such discontinuance for default of the defendant's appearance in any civil suit, but any recognizance entered into by the principal shall stand as an obligation for him to appear at the next meeting of the court, in the same manner as if the condition