

experience in such matters, to whom he referred us, and have employed a workman in the proper materials, to manufacture the several weights and measures required, who has been several months engaged in that business, and we are informed will not have them ready for delivery at an earlier period than the month of February next; hence it will be seen, that to comply with the law as to time, was impracticable. When the weights and measures shall be obtained we will cause them to be delivered as directed, without delay.

We have not yet procured 'an entire and complete set of the manuscript or printed votes and proceedings of the several conventions, held antecedently to the formation of the State Government, and each branch of the Legislature,' as authorised and requested by law. Mr. Jonas Green, of this place, was supposed to be in possession of such a set, which it was understood could be obtained for the State. But upon examination, it was found that he had none of the former, and that several volumes were wanting to complete his set of the latter. Mr. Green has offered us his set as it is, but we have declined purchasing it, until we can ascertain whether we can obtain "an entire and compleat set," or that part in which his is deficient.

We were gratified to find that the legislature had turned its attention towards perfecting the
