

done good and faithful servants—enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.”

With our most sincere wishes that the result of your deliberations may redound to your own honor, and promote the substantial interests and permanent welfare of your constituents, and with an assurance of our cordial co-operation in all measures calculated to promote those ends,

We have the honor to be,
With the highest consideration,
Your obedient servants

JOS. KENT.