

In 1779, George Plater, William Paca, William Carmichael, John Henry, jr. James Forbes and Daniel St. Thomas Jenifer, esquires, were the delegates.

In 1780, Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, John Hanson, John Henry, jr. and George Plater.

In 1781, Samuel Chase, Daniel Carroll, John Hanson, Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, Richard Potts, Turbut Wright, and William Hemsley.

In December, 1781, Samuel Chase, Turbut Wright, D. Carroll and Alexander Hanson, were elected delegates from Maryland.

In September 1782, Mr. William Hemsley took his seat.

In March, 1783, Mr. Thomas Sim Lee, took his seat. In June of the same year, Mr. James M'Henry took his seat.

In the congress which met on the 3d November, 1783, Daniel Carroll, and James M'Henry, appeared and took their seats. On the 9th December, of that year, John Hall and Jeremiah Lownley Chase, were duly elected additional members from Maryland. The latter gentleman took his seat on the 15th of that month.

Mr. J. T. Chase, Mr. Lloyd and Mr. Stone, attended the congress of 1784.

No delegate from this state attended the congress which met at Trenton in November, 1784.

On the 4th December, 1784, Samuel Chase, James M'Henry and Gustavus Scott, were duly elected to represent the state of Maryland in the