

MARYLAND.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

St. Mary's County.

The sheriff is elected by the people to serve three years—registers of wills are chosen by the legislature, to serve during good behaviour—the county clerks are appointed by the judges of the court at pleasure—the judges of the orphans court, justices of the levy court and justices of the peace and coroners, are appointed by the executive, annually, in January—surveyors and inspectors of tobacco are appointed by the executive at pleasure.

Sheriff—William Williams

Judges of the county court.

John Stephen, c. j.
Edmund Key

John R, Plater

Clerk—Joseph Harris

Sessions of the court—First Mondays in March and August.

Coroners.

Thomas Loker,
Michael B. Carroll,
Benjamin G. Cole,
E. J. Millard,

Charles Massey,
Francis Simms,
James H. Wather,
James Kirk,

Orphan's Court.

Luke W. Barber,
Joseph Stone,

George Thomas.

Register of Wills, Enoch J. Millard—app. Oct. 25, 1826.