

dollars of assessable property, to be collected according to law, to meet the interest on the amount of said certificates outstanding, and also to meet and redeem so much of the principal, in each of said years, as will be represented by certificates redeemable in each year, respectively, as herein specified in Section 22 of this Act.

SEC. 28. And be it further enacted, That if the taxes imposed by the provisions of this Act shall be insufficient to meet the interest on the said bonds or certificates, and to pay the bonds or certificates as they mature, the General Assembly of Maryland, at its next regular session beginning in January 1924, shall make proper provision, by way of levy or levies or in such other manner as may be adequate, for the prompt payment of the interest as and when due and payable, and for the prompt payment of the principal at the time or times named for the maturity thereof, of such of the certificates of indebtedness authorized by this Act as may then have been issued, to the end that the interest on and the principal of any and all certificates issued under this Act may be promptly paid as and when respectively due and payable, to the making of which payments, as and when due and payable, the faith and credit of the State of Maryland is firmly and irrevocably pledged; and in the event that any such interest or the principal of any of said certificates be or become due and payable before provision therefor has been made by the General Assembly of Maryland of 1924, as aforesaid, then the same shall be promptly paid from monies in the Treasury available for such purpose, to the making of which payments, as and when due and payable, the faith and credit of the State of Maryland is firmly and irrevocably pledged.

SEC. 29. And be further enacted, That this Act shall, at the general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1922, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of the State for their approval or rejection.

The Supervisors of Elections of the City of Baltimore and of the several Counties shall have printed upon the ballots to be used at said election in November, 1922, the following words:

For Soldiers' Bonus.

Against Soldiers' Bonus.

The Supervisors of Elections of the City of Baltimore and of the several Counties shall canvass the returns and certify the number of votes cast for and against this Act in the same
